The rails, for a distance of three miles, have been laid on the Killala line. It is thought that the line will be ready for traffic by December next.

Very distressing accounts are received from different parts of the country, notably from the coast, of the direful effects of the late storms upon the crops.

Mr. Moody, the evangelist, who is about to visit Scotland, is to be invited to visit Ireland. He and Sankey created a great sensation when last in Dublin. The County Galway Infirmary has ceased to be a government institution and has been closed. Efforts are being made to re-open it and sustain it by public subscrip-

Nine men have been arrested at Strabane, Tyrone county, charged with having murdered Hugh McLaughlin. He was home on furlough, being a member of the Liverpool police force.

The noblemen and gentlemen who acted as trustees for the Irish exhibition lately held in London are out of pocket $40,000, but public subscription will, it is thought, reimburse them.

It is generally reported that Mr. Dillon M. P., lately released from Galway jail, is about to be married to Miss Emmet, of New York. She is said to be a grandniece of the celebrated Robert Emmet.

A herder named Kugan, residing at Cahergal village, near Babersfort, in the parish of Tuam, committed suicide by hanging himself in a barn. Such an event is almost unknown among the peasantry.

A farmer named Charlton, residing near the town of Sligo, has been arrested for shooting at and wounding a young man named Gilmore, because the latter, in spite of his prohibition, continued to court his daughter. It now transpires that the sum of $10,000 has been drawn from the Paris fund, which was subscribed for the use of the poor ten-ants, for the purpose of paying off the bonds which Dillon and O'Brien forfeited by not appearing at the trial at Tipperary. During the past twelve months the police returns show that the number of arrests for drunkenness in the county of Westmeath were only seventy-five, and in Longford county during the same period only twenty-five. This speaks well for the people of these two counties. -Lord Zetland, the present Viceroy of Ireland, ably seconded by his wife and Mr. Balfour, whose sister has won the hearts of the poor people of the west, are becoming daily more and more popular, particularly in those counties where relief works are in progress.

Under the new land-purchase act there will be a special commission, whose duty it will be to investigate and report upon the best means of relieving the congested districts in the west. The idea is to remove a certain proportion to other districts, when land will be purchased for them to settle 230 miles of railway, that will open up districts and bring prosperity where want has seldom been absent. They have given for these lines, as a free gift, $5,500,000; Balfour and Zetland distributed $200,000 that they collected. They have procured for the Irish tenant farmers, to enable them to purchase their farms, the sum of $165,000,000,000, and $7,500,000 for permanent improvements.

There are in the United States, as well as in almost every country in the world, many who will learn with regret that Brothe Low, who for thirty-five years was at the head of the Christian Brothers' schools in Tuam, is dead. Besides those residing in Galway county, Mayo, Roscommon and Sligo counties used to send boys to study under Brother Low. He was the most widely-known, most affectionately-remembered teacher of his time in Ireland.

Indianapolis School of Music, Something new in bonnet pins is a comet with a long-spun gold tail. It should be stuck in somewhere about the top of the headgear to be most effective. Northwest Corner Circle and Market Streets. Third year opens Sept, 14. Piano, Singing, Violin, Pipe Organ, Theory and Composition taught by specialists who have had from four to six years in the best music schools of Europe. For catalogue, etc., call at office or address CLARENCE FORSYTH. Silver bangles are merely a thread, but the girl of the period is supposed to have as many of these silver threads on her wrist as is possible to put on it. The school will be pen during the summer for piano and violin pupils. One of the autumn hats for the girl of the period is something of the alpine shape, made of dark brown felt and with a great show of cock's feathers at the side. The newest change pocket-book for women is a flat square of leather that pulls out like an accordeon. and is tiny enough to be hid within the palm of the hand. Novelties in future and what is now called the "upholstery arts" are very numerous, and will contribute more than ever to the elegance of the "house beautiful." The new long and narrow envelopes do not find as much fashionable favor as the regulation square that has so long obtained. The chief complaint is based upon their awkwardness. New designs in silver glove buttoners are whips, fishing rods and swords, the loop of the strap around the latter making the place for the botton. All are of a size that will go in the pocket-book. A new wrap in London, the first of which was introduced by the German Empress, is of gray corduroy, trimmed with narrow braid of a corresponding color. Many of the new dress materials for autumn are very beautiful, the "effects" being very striking and stylish. It looks as if the girl of the period was destined to appear on the streets more "stunning" than Lorgnettes appear to have taken new lease of life and to have become more fashionable than ever. They are, of course, more of a "fad" than an assistance to the eyes, and in the hands of vain and not even refined women are a temptation to be rude. A yellow satin gown exhibited at a re-cent dinner party at Newport was embroid-ered all over in black with spider webs, with here and there a huge spider done in black and gold. The "creation" was odd, and for this reason, no doubt, was due its Whereas in old times women who painted their faces were unknown in "society.
